YESTERDAY'S HAPPENINGS IN THE CITY BEYOND THE JAMES.

Mr. George E. Gary to Present a Valuable Relic to the Confederate Museum—Infant Son of Mr. George McTyre Dead.

Mr. George E. Gary, a prominent Manchester man, has decided to present within the next few days the 6-inch rifle shell which he has in his possession, and which was thrown from the Rip-Raps in Hampton Roads to Sewell's Point by a Sawyer gun in 1861, to the Confederate Museum, in Richmond.

The funeral of Mary Lizzie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, who died at the residence of her parents, in Swansboro, Sunday at 2 o'clock, took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the residence. The interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Marvin, aged 11 months, who died Saturday afternoon, was buried Sunday from the late residence, No. 100 Semmes street, Rev. W. W. Lear officiating. The interment took place in Maury Cemetery.

George, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. McTyre, died at his parents' residence, about six miles below Manchester, yesterday morning at 2 o'clock. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be made in the family burying-ground.

Peter Wingo (colored) was before Mayor Maurice yesterday morning, charged with cutting Dan Cooley, Alice Clark, and Ella Brown with a knife last Saturday night in Tan-Yard bottom. He was sent out to the grand jury.

Dan Cooley was charged with striking Peter Wingo, while Alice Clark was holding him, Saturday night. Dan was discharged.

W. J. Kitcher, Willie Lewis, Luther Godsey, Ed. Timms, Ed. Dobbins, Cleve Smith were charged with breaking down corn belonging to Mr. W. H. Walker, who resides near the river. All of the prisoners were discharged, with the exception of Ed. Dobbins and Willie Gilliam, who were fined $1 each.

Clopton-street Baptist church was filled Sunday with the friends and members of the congregation, who had gathered to attend the second anniversary service of their pastor, the Rev. W. R. Halseth. The services were impressively conducted by Mr. Halseth, and the musical programme was admirably carried out.

Miss Belle Kearney, national organizer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will deliver an address at Cowardin-avenue Baptist church this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The water commissioners held their regular monthly meeting last night in the office of the water-works, but only routine matters, without public interest, were transacted. The commissioners discussed plans for operating next year, and intend to curtail expenses wherever practicable.

Dr. Powers at Monumental. Rev. Dr. W. Dudley Powers, of Montgomery, Ala., preached a most edifying sermon in the Monumental church at the 11 o'clock service on Sunday. His theme was "The Blood-Stained Conqueror of Edom." "Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah?" was the text. Dr. Powers was brought up in Monumental church, the son of William H. Powers, for many years an honored officer of the old church.

Dr. Powers is the guest of his sister, at 515 Third avenue, and will remain through the reunion.

Rev. Mr. Stetkey, rector of the church, was in the chance and conducted the service.

The Vaudeville To-Night. The vaudeville performance at the Jefferson Hotel roof garden to-night is for the benefit of the Virginia Hospital. Should the weather be inclement, the performance will take place in the hotel. Every arrangement has been made to have it regardless of the weather, and as it is for the benefit of the Virginia Hospital we hope there will be a large crowd.
